

Melbourne & Sydney Tollway Information

If you are heading out on either Sydney or Melbourne roads, it's important to know some roads incur fees for travelling on them.

Typically, these roads are major freeways or highways that allow you to travel 'across town' in various directions.

Tolls are renters responsibility. Please purchase directly from the tollway operator to avoid fines & administration fees.

Melbourne Tollways

CityLink is the 22 kilometre automated tollway that makes getting around Melbourne quick and easy. Just look out for the blue and yellow signs. Payment is easy. You simply need to purchase your own CityLink pass by either:

- Visiting citylink.com.au
- Going into a participating Australia Post Office
- Using the Bill Express machines at major Coles Express outlets.
- Using the Touch Screens at Melbourne Airport
- Calling into the CityLink Customer Care Centre at 67 Lorimer Street, Southbank; or
- Phoning CityLink on 13 26 29

You can purchase a CityLink pass up to midnight on the third day after your nominated day of travel. 24 Hour or Tulla passes are valid for 24 hours from the time of your first trip on the City Link, on your nominated day. A Weekend Pass is valid from midday Friday to midnight Sunday. When buying a Weekend Pass, your nominated day will be Saturday.

Sydney Tollways

Travelling across Sydney is quicker and easier with the introduction of tollways. E tags issued by any toll motor way in Australia are valid to use on all motorways in New South Wales. If you travel on a tollway without an E-tag, cash, EFTPOS* or credit card* payment can be made at the cash booths immediately. Cash booths also offer the option to defer payment* to a later date.

For travel on the Sydney Tollways you can register for an RTA E-Toll pass by:

- Visiting myRTA.com, and clicking on myE-Toll and complete the online registration.
- Calling 131 865 between 8.30am-5pm Monday to Friday and 8:30-noon Saturday.

Alternatively the following Tollways offer cash lane operations. If you have travelled without payment please phone the numbers below to arrange payment:
